"A Welcome Hand to Greet You"

—The Grand Lodge of New Jersey MISSION STATEMENT—FREEMASONRY promotes a way of life that binds like-minded men with the principles of Brotherly Love, Relief and Truth in order to serve God, Family, Country, Neighbor and Self.

FROM THE EAST

My Brother,

As Masons, we root our symbolism in construction. And Masonry affords us three essential structures to build upon in order to accomplish our mission of making good men better.

The first essential structure we must endeavor to build resides within us. From our very initiation we commence the erection of our future spiritual, moral, and masonic edifice. To this end, we make a very important commitment to ourselves. We commit to learning to subdue our passions and to improve ourselves in Masonry. We cannot even Pass to the Fellowcraft Degree without first speaking these words. You see Brother, we cannot possibly hope to improve someone else unless we have at least begun our own improvement.

This brings us to the second essential structure in Masonry; the network of friendship. Masonry teaches us at every stage the importance of friendship and brotherly love, and as our friendships develop and grow, we ourselves improve as men and as Masons. As such, it is crucial that we always endeavor to expand our Masonic family and build upon the good fellowship among the brethren.

Which leads us to the third essential structure, the Lodge itself. This being the very place in which we meet, commune, and initiate new brethren into our great fraternity, it should be our constant care ever to maintain and amend its functionality and appearance. The bare minimum is simply not enough. A lodge and its members are indeed a reflection of one another. Furthermore, this undertaking serves to tie all three together, giving us the opportunity to build our own character, forge stronger bonds of friendship and beautify the place where we dwell together in unity.

Fraternally,

Jannett M. Cronk, PM

Worshipful Master
